IN AID OF THE BLIND.

Pleasing Entertainment Given at Congregational Church Last Night.

With the object of raising funds for the reading room for the blind, a most entertaining musical was given Tuesday evening at the Congregational church. The program was in charge of Miss Minette Baer, Miss Loreen Leary and Miss Florence Page Kimball. The affair proved an unqualified success both financially and artistically. This sum received from the large audience, and from those who purchased tickets to help the cause, will go a long way in making the desired additions and improvements at the reading home.

The program rendered was as follows: "Marche Religieuse," organ selection, by Edward P. Kimball; three solos by Miss Florence Page Kimball; "The Magic Flute," by Fred Smith; two violin selections by George Skelton: "Like a Rosebud" and "A Birthday," two songs, were rendered by Mrs. A. S. Peters; duet by Miss Sybella White Clayton and A. J. Kisselburg; Mis. Flora Parsons Stevenson of Chicago sang several songs; Miss Mary H. Kimball; and

AMUSEMENTS

Theater—Thursday, Friday and Sat-irday evenings at the Theater will see considerable departure from the or linary round of amusement. "Elektra," in Greek, Thursday and Saturday, will be the bill ren in Greek, Thursday and Saturday, with Saturday matinee, will be the bill rendered, while Friday evening there will be a Folk Song recital, given by Penelope Duncan. Greek, Scotch, Irish and English folk songs will be rendered with an explanatory lecture by Raymond Duncan, on his discovery of the scales and laws of folk music.

Orpheum — Another good week's business is promised at the Orpheum, in spite of the tremendous programs of the past few weeks, which make a normally excellent program, without a big, showy act, appear to lack something. The Four Fords, the week's headliners, give the most elaborately staged dancing act ever seen in the city.

Garrick—The Ingersoll Stock com-pan), presenting that sterling play, "The Middleman," expect to do a ca-pacity business before the week is over, especially at the matinees.

Daniels—The latest offering by the Allen Curtis company, entitled "The Gay Deceivers," is running through the week to good sized audiences. The next attraction, beginning Saturday afternoon, will be entitled, "The American Princess." afternoon, will be entire Moving Pictures—At the Shubert "Uncle Tom's Cabin," at the Isis "True to His Trust," at the Luna "Canadian Moonshiners," and at the Elite "Between Love and Honor," are drawing good audiences, and will continue this week.

Al-indants were stationed at the doors with automatic counters and 10,000 visitors were tallied for the reception. This number does not include several hundred persons who passed through during the earlier hours of the day before the rush began nor the guests present at the time the general authorities of the Church inspected the building. building.

BOARD OF CONTROL PLEASED The board of control of the gymna-sium is gratified with the interest shown in the institution, Gen. Secy. Hinckley speaking for the board this

Hinckley speaking for the board this morning saying:

"The crowds of yesterday and last night kept us so busy that I have hardly had time to draw a good breath yet this morning. I do want to say that we are gratified with the interest taken in the opening of the gymnasium as manifested by the great outpouring of people who visited the institution yesterday. We are glad that so many were people who visited the institution yesterday. We are glad that so many were here to see our splendid establishment. It became necessary to close the doors twice last night to avoid a crushing crowd in the building. To any of those who may have been annoyed by this action, however, we want to say that who may have been annoyed by this action, however, we want to say that it was for their own comfort as well as for the comfort of those already in the building that the doors were closed, as they would have realized if they had been admitted while the building was so thronged. It seemed that everybody wanted to come at the same hour, for soon after 8 o'clock the doors were besteged by crowds larger than even our building could possibly accommodate."

The reception began at 11 o'clock and continued without cessation until midnight Juring all the day the building was thronged and the grounds about the entrance filled with people going away and coming in.

The conversation among those who had been through the building indicated that their impressions of the institution were only favorable. Here is one that was typical: "Well I was surprised at the completeness of the place of had read a great deal concerning the place and expected to find a big and modern gymnasium, but sten at that I was surprised, for it was far bigger and far better than I had imagined it could be,"

CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS.

Much interest is being manifes song all civil service employes of Salt Lake over the Gillett bill for the retirement of superannuated employes which is now pending, and will likely be taken up at the next session of Con-gress. Accordingly a call, signed by F. L. Libby, W. M. Heath, and J. E. Seely of Salt Lake has been issued, asking all civil service people to meet in room No. 5 on the second floor of the federal building, Friday, Sept. 23 to, discuss the measure. It is pointed out that the bill is an important one, affecting every individual in the serv-ice: that if it becomes a law, deducions will be made from all salaries t rovide a fund for its establishment.
